

DR ANDREW JAKOBOVITS

GASTROENTEROLOGIST | FRACP, MRCP, MBBS

MINDSENSE
CENTRE OF PSYCHIATRY

Overview

Dr Andrew Jakobovits is a distinguished gastroenterologist. He has served as an independent medical examiner for WorkCover for 10 years. He actively engages in academia as a Senior Lecturer at Monash University's Department of Medicine at Alfred Hospital. Additionally, he instructs on the AMI Guides Chapter 10, which pertains to gastroenterology.

Dr Jakobovits is accredited to perform WorkSafe assessments for the Victorian WorkCover authority. His specialties in assessments include gastroenterology conditions and issues related to alcohol and substance abuse. Previously, he held the position of Senior Visiting Gastroenterologist at Alfred Hospital in Melbourne.

Special Areas of Expertise

- Liver Disease
- Inflammatory Bowel Disease
- Peptic Ulcer Disease
- Gastroenterology condition
- Alcohol & Substance Abuse
- Tumors

Current Positions

- Private Consulting Gastroenterologist, Cabrini Hospital, Melbourne
- Senior Lecturer, Monash University Department of Medicine, Alfred Hospital, Melbourne

Qualifications, Accreditations and Awards

- AMA 4
- Worksafe Victoria
- FRACP (1977)
- MCRP London (1977)
- MBBS University of Melbourne, Melbourne (1970)

Consulting Areas

- Melbourne, VIC
- MindSense Assessment